3.Amending the Policy

We may change this policy from time to time, in response to changes in the law or for operational reasons. Any changes will immediately be included on the App and you will be deemed to have accepted the amended Policy if you continue to use the App afterwards. You should therefore regularly review this Policy.

Information we receive from third parties

We work with third parties and we may receive information about you from them, for example, business partners, sub-contractors in technical payment and delivery services, advertising networks, analytics providers, search information providers, or credit reference agencies. We will notify you when we receive information about you from them and the purposes for which we intend to use that information.

Our communication from time to time contain links to third party websites over which we have no control. If you follow a link to any of these websites, please note that they have their own practices and policies. We encourage you to read these privacy policies or statements of these websites and understand your rights. We accept no responsibility or liability for any practices of third-party websites.

4.Use of information by Qoin SA

We use this information:

- To improve our marketing efforts, by analysing App usage and customise our App's content and layout.
- Deliver, improve and develop our technology.
- To research, design and launch new features or products.
- To present content and information on our App in the most effective manner for you and for the device you use.
- To provide you with alerts, updates, materials or information about our products and services or other types of information you either requested or signed up to.
- To communicate with you and respond to your questions and requests.
- We may also use this information to directly market new products and services (via e-mail and other on and off-line communications) to you. This involves sending you information about products and services by post, telephone or any form of electronic communication.

We never share your name or contact details with third parties for marketing purposes unless we have your “opt-in” consent to share your details with a specific third party for them to send you marketing. We do use third party service providers to send out our direct marketing activities. We keep this information for the marketing of our services.

If you do not wish to receive these communications from us, please notify us by e-mail at support@qoin.world to opt out.

Website Information

We may collect information about you and your use of our website

Who will see or have access to your information?

For the purposes of providing you with access to our App and in order to deliver the services that we provide to you, we may share your personal information with third parties such as, any of our subsidiaries or related body corporates, contractors, auditors, advisers, agents, financial institutions, service providers and suppliers.

In order to deliver the services that we provide to you. We may disclose your personal information to other organisations only after ensuring that such organisations comply with South Africa’s Privacy Laws. Otherwise, we will not disclose personal information to any third party without first obtaining your permission, except where required or permitted by law, or permitted elsewhere in this Privacy Policy.

In the event of a security incident involving unauthorised access, use or disclosure of personal information where a third party with whom we share personal information is involved, we will seek to work cooperatively with them to protect the personal information we have shared with them.

We may disclose to third parties’ aggregate anonymous statistics regarding our users, traffic analyses and other information regarding or collected through our App.

5.Security

We collect and store personally identifiable information using encryption technology that encrypts the information you input before it is sent to us via the Internet. In addition, all the information we collect on the App and any of our websites is stored on our secure servers which are in a restricted access area and is password protected.

We store all other material that contains personally identifiable information on our dedicated cloud servers. These premises are kept secure at all times.

We restrict access to personal information to our employees, service providers and contractors on a strictly need to know basis and to ensure that those persons are subject to contractual confidentiality obligations.

Please note, however, the transmission of information via the Internet is not completely secure. Although we will do our best to protect your personal data, we cannot guarantee the security of your data transmitted to the App. Any transmission is at your own risk.

6. Keeping your personal information secure

Qoin SA’s security measures are designed to assist in ensuring that your personal information is not accessed by unauthorised personnel, lost or misused. If you reasonably believe that there has been an unauthorised use or disclosure of your personal information, please let us know by contacting our Privacy Officer.

7. Correcting, changing and updating your information

You may gain access to personal information that Qoin SA has collected about you and you may request to have any of your personal information corrected or updated by contacting the Privacy Officer at the details below.

8. Keeping your personal information accurate

The personal information we hold about you (such as name and email address) is kept so that we may correctly identify you and provide services to you. We take all reasonable steps to ensure that personal information held by us is accurate, up-to-date, complete, relevant and not misleading. If you believe that any of your personal information is not accurate, up-to-date, complete, relevant and not misleading, please contact us (see below) and we will take all reasonable steps to correct it within a reasonable time.

9. Breaches of security

Notwithstanding the reasonable steps taken to keep information secure, breaches may occur. In the event of a security incident we have in place procedures to promptly investigate the incident and determine if there has been a data breach involving personal information, and if so, to assess if it is a breach that would require notification. If it is, we will notify affected parties in accordance with South Africa's Privacy Law requirements.

10. How you can access, change or delete personally identifiable information

You have a right to request a copy of the personal information we hold about you, except where the law allows us to refuse your request. If you wish to receive a copy of this information, please address your request to the Privacy Officer. We will deal with your request promptly and in any case at least within 30 days of the date of receiving it. We will give access to the information in the manner you request, where reasonable and practicable. This will be subject to any exemptions allowed under South Africa's Privacy Laws. We will correct or delete inaccurate or incomplete personal information we hold about you at your request, except where the law allows us to refuse your request.

11. Contacting Qoin SA about Privacy matters

When contacting us you have the option to either not identify yourself or to use a pseudonym, unless it is impracticable for us to communicate with you that way or we are required or authorised under South African Privacy Laws to only deal with individuals who have identified themselves.

12. Privacy Officer Details and Feedback

We appreciate your comments and questions regarding this Privacy Policy. If at any time you believe we have handled your information otherwise than in accordance with this Privacy Policy or South African Privacy Laws please notify the Privacy Officer using the contact details provided above and we will use commercially reasonable efforts to investigate and, if we deem reasonably appropriate, remedy the matter.
